

Places to Eat

Groups St. Andrews 2017

Birmingham

We cover three areas, in which you can find restaurants to eat in.

- The Bristol Road through Selly Oak 10 minutes walk to the south of the university campus.
- Harborne High Street 20 minutes walk to the north west of campus
- Highfield Road close to the accommodation in Chamberlain Hall.

Of course there are lots of other restaurants of all different types scattered across Birmingham, and many in the city centre. A list of good restaurants can be found on the Birmingham Mail's pages or via tripadvisor, google, etc.

We've put a * on the ones that you'd be advised to book in advance.

The Bratby Bar(Staff House)

This may well turn out to be the primary meeting point before further plans are made. Just 100m from the Watson building, has a good range of beers and wine and provides food if necessary. Open 12.00–22.30 weekdays.

Harborne High Street

An easy walk (approx. 10 mins) from the campus, this popular High Street has a number standard chains, including Cafe Rouge, Pizza Express, Prezzo, Zizzi, and many other options:

- Turners at 69*: Michelin starred, but on the more affordable end of Michelin starred restaurants.

- Buonissimo*: Very nice Italian restaurant.

- Harborne Kitchen*: Fairly new, and very good modern British restaurant.

- Sabai Sabai: A little beyond the main part of the High Street, this is a nice Thai restaurant.

- Umani: Tucked right at the other end of the High Street, so quite a walk this is a very good Indian restaurant.

- Pubs (all serve food):
 - The Green Man: <http://www.emberinns.co.uk/nationalsearch/eastandwestmidlands/the-green-man-harborne>
 - The Plough: <https://theploughharborne.co.uk/>
 - The Junction: <http://www.thejunctionharborne.co.uk/>
 - New Inn: <http://www.newinnharborne.co.uk/>
 - Arco Lounge: <http://thelounges.co.uk/lounges/arco-lounge/>

Selly Oak - Bristol Road

Formerly, just the bastion of a variety of Indian restaurants, there is now a bit more variety in this student dominated suburb. The possibilities include:

- Yaki-Nori: Pretty good modern style Japanese restaurant
<http://www.yakinori.co.uk/>
- Golden City Chinese: Reasonable Chinese restaurant, which is popular locally.
- Sundarbon: Fairly standard Birmingham style Indian restaurant.
<https://www.sundarbon.co.uk/>
- Dilshad: Similar to the Sundarbon.
- Bohemia*: A bit further away, but this is a nice restaurant, which may be described as modern British.

- Paprika Grillhouse*: Again this is a bit further, and probably about a 20 minute walk. It's a Persian grill and is pretty good.

- Pubs (all of which also offer food):

- The Goose.
- The S’Oak.
- The Bristol Pear.

Highfield Road

These three options are easy walking distance from the Vale. If you go a bit further in the same direction, you’ll find many more options on the Hagley Road, and on Harborne Road.

- The Highfield: Nice gastropub serving good pub food.
<http://www.highfieldedgbaston.co.uk/edgbaston-gastro-pub/>
- The Physician: Similar gastropub to the Highfield.
<http://www.brunningandprice.co.uk/physician/homepage/>
- Simpsons*: This is a Michelin starred restaurant, so very good and pricey.

City Centre

I (CWP) only know pubs and then only ones that sell nice beer.

- The Wellington: <http://www.thewellingtonrealale.co.uk/>
- The Postoffice Vaults: <http://postofficevaults.co.uk/>
- The Brew Dog: <https://www.brewdog.com/bars/uk/birmingham>
